PILOTS FEAR GAS SHORTAGE; CHANGE COURSE

FRENCH MONOPLANE POINTS TOWARD PORTUGAL INSTEAD OF PARIS.

OVER GRIM ATLANTIC

NEW YORK, June 14. (UP)—The Commercial Cable Co. received advice at 2:40 p. m. today that the Yellow Bird was approximately 200 miles off the coast of Portugal. They expected to land in Portugal, refuel and proceed to Paris tomorrow.

LONDON, June 14. (UP)—The French monoplane Yellow Bird reported "all well" at noon today (7 a. m. EST) the Cunard liner Laconia.

Capt. Boyle of the Laconia sent the following message:

"Greenwich can hear Yellow Bird working with steamship Niagara. Reports all well. Airplane's position not stated. Niagara's position, latitude 41.14 north, longitude 19.10 west. Strong southerly wind."

"Doyle, Captain."

The position of the Niagara was about 300 miles northeast of the Yellow Bird and about 800 miles due west of the Portuguese coast. Since the Yellow Bird has a radio range of 600 miles, it was impossible to determine whether the plane had passed the coast.

PARIS, June 14. (UP)—Armeno's father received a message re-portedly from the Yellow Bird, suppos-ingly from his son aboard the Yellow Bird, giving the plane's position as 42° north, without indicating time. The position given is a due north of the Azores.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Yellow Bird has changed its course and is now headed for the coast of Portugal because of a shortage of gas. Rollin of the French line, who had notified his office here by radio today.

Capt. Rollin said he received a message from the plane early today stating that the fliers feared their fuel would not hold out until they reached France.

PARIS, June 14.—Wireless mes-sages from the Cunard liner Laconia to the French Air Ministry today in-dicated that the huge French mono-plane Yellow Bird would be forced to fight a fifty mile gale, head on, in the last 600 miles of its journey across the Atlantic.

PARIS, June 14.—The cross At-lantic flight of the giant French monoplane Yellow Bird from Old Orchard, Me., to Le Bourget Field, France, overshadowed everything here today.

Large crowds watched and wait-ed in the streets for latest news of the flight. They gathered in front of the newspaper offices and in the public squares and on the boulevards. They began to besiege Le Bourget Field at an early hour in the hope of getting a glimpse of the plane when it arrived.

The French newspapers, of course, carried full banner lines over the flight.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The big monoplane Yellow Bird, flying eastward over the Atlantic toward Paris, early today, reportedly had completed more than half of its chartered route from Old Orchard, Maine.

Within hours after the three ad-vanced French fliers, Arveno Lot-an Assolant and Rene LeFevre, lifted the great plane in a beau-tiful take-off from the sands of Old Orchard the Yellow Bird was be-lieved to have covered something in excess of 1,800 miles.

There was no direct word from the plane since it was sighted last night by the United States shipping board at Nantucket Island. The captain of the Mytheville wireless that the Yellow Bird was flying high and fast. At that hour the plane had covered 850 miles.

The Yellow Bird continued its flight, aided by weather which was described as "the best since Lind-bergh flew to Paris," those ashore were following its progress at-tempting to check the report that a heavy fog had succeeded in getting the plane before its take-off. Two Old Orchard boys said a lad named Arthur Schreiber secreted himself aboard the ship in the confusion surrounding the start. Aviation experts generally doubted such a feat was possible.

The Mytheville reported, through the U. S. S. Tampa, that the Yellow Bird soared overhead at 5:40 p. m. (EST) yesterday, flying swiftly eastward and in no apparent trouble. Weather conditions were extremely favorable and a slight westerly wind was helping the plane's single motor in pushing the ship toward its goal.

Airplanes Bomb Fierce Tribesmen

FRENCH RESCUE FORCE ARRIVES AT BESIEGED OUTPOST IN AFRICA

EL BORDJ, Morocco, June 14.—Two thousand Moorish tribesmen continued to wage desperate guerilla warfare today against the gathering French forces which have come to rescue their comrades captured in an ambush here early this week.

Airplanes, which operated all day yesterday in this vicinity with machine guns and bombs, scattered the mountain tribesmen.

The airplanes succeeded in clearing the immediate vicinity of Ait Yakoub, the French outpost where 360 men are beleaguered. The French have plenty of water, food and ammunition.

Reinforcements have arrived here and were preparing for operations to free Ait Yakoub completely. Other groups of French were concentrating at Midelt, ready to move wherever needed in the forthcoming maneuvers.

STATE ROAD 36 TO BE PAVED IN NEXT FEW YEARS

DANVILLE EDITOR GETS INFORMATION TO THIS EFFECT THIS WEEK

ONE STRETCH IN 1930

Section In Vicinity of Bainbridge To Get Paved Surface Soon Is Report.

Julian D. Hogate, editor of the Danville Republican is in receipt of a letter from William J. Titus, chief engineer of the Indiana State Highway Commission, written at the request of John J. Brown, director of the Highway Commission, relative to the improvement of State Road 36, which crosses northern Putnam county from east to west.

Mr. Hogate's letter says:

"I am glad to advise you that some weeks ago at a meeting of the Indiana and Illinois highway departments near the State line, an understanding was reached relative to connecting this (Road No. 36) road in the two states at a common point. The Highway Commission has authorized us to include in next year's program the improvements of something less than ten miles of this road between the State line and the town of Montezuma. The heavy grading on this project was completed last season in order to permit fills to make as much settlement as possible before placing the pavement slab.

"At its meeting, yesterday, (June 6) the Highway Commission authorized us to start sometime late this summer on the survey of this road between Danville and the intersection with road 43 west of Bainbridge. The Highway Commission appreciates that this road (No. 36) is a U. S. highway and plans to improve it permanently in the next very few years."

This is the first definite news concerning the improvement of No. 36 in a long time. The State Highway Commission is now engaged in making life more livable for travelers on No. 36 and for the people living along the road by putting calcium chloride on the roadway to keep down the dust.

VOTE FOR PUBLICITY

WASHINGTON, June 14. (UP)—Riding over the protests of former secrecy advocates, the Senate voted today to change its 100 year old rule of considering presidential nominations in executive sessions, and to provide for publication of all future secret roll calls.

While no Senator is now openly opposed to the change, a small group of Republican leaders want to put off action until it is too late. The situation is such, however, that they must filibuster if they want to delay a vote.

The Jones amendment proposing the change is the pending business of the Senate, made so late yesterday by a 45 to 29 vote.

If the Jones amendment is adopted within the next few days as scheduled, the way will be cleared for a summer recess of Congress the middle of next week.

CATTLEMEN OF TWO COUNTIES HELD MEETING

SHORTHORN BREEDERS ENJOY ALL DAY SESSION ON THURSDAY

PURDUE EXPERT PRESENT

Herds Of Cattle Inspected On Various Farms And Basket Dinner Served At Noon Hour.

Putnam and Parke County Shorthorn Breeders of the Fifth district held an all day meeting and tour Thursday. The tour included the inspection of eight farms on which were registered Shorthorn cattle.

The crowd assembled at the farm of J. H. Miller in Parke county and after inspecting Mr. Miller's herd went to the farm of Waldo Nevins, George Lloyd's, and J. B. McCabe's.

A basket dinner and a short business meeting was held on the farm of J. F. Clodfelter. During the business meeting short talks were given by P. T. Brown, of the animal husbandry department of Purdue University; R. H. Stevenson, of the Central National Bank and Central Trust Company; Floyd Miller, county agent, and Scott Milligan, county agent of Parke county.

Mr. Brown gave some interesting figures on the cost of the maintenance of a cow for a year, allowing he calf raised to show profit. Costs are kept on two Putnam county herds, those of Morton Fordice and on Russellville, and J. B. McCabe and sons of Greencastle.

Mr. Fordice kept 15 grade Shorthorn cows for a year at a cost of $350.40 an average of $23.36. The calves were appraised in the fall at $51.63 or a profit of $28.27 per calf. Mr. McCabe kept 12 Shorthorn cows for a year with a herd cost of $248.50 or an average of $20.71. The calves are appraised at a market price of $58.00 or a profit of $27.41 per calf.

This work was carried on under the supervision of Purdue University. Mr. Stevenson spoke on the situation in Putnam county at the present time of a large valuable pasture going to waste because of lack of cattle to consume it. Taxes on this land go on just the same so some use should be made of it as it is a total loss at the present time.

A number of farmers reported that around them they could rent good grass land at their own price. Mr. Miller and Mr. Milligan in their talks set out a number of helpful points for the cattle breeders.

The afternoon was spent inspecting the herds of Fred Bellis, Carl Porter and Henry Butler.

GOOD WEATHER IS HOPED FOR ON WEDNESDAY

LONE STAR CEMENT COMPANY TO HOLD BIG BARBECUE JUNE 19.

Much depends on the Weather Man next Wednesday in this city, because if it is a nice day on that date, the Lone Star Cement Company's big party and barbecue, which is shaping up in nice style, should be a big success.

If the weather is good, half the population of Putnam county is expected to attend, as everyone has been invited and there should be at least a fifty per cent attendance. If this is true, there should be more than 10,000 people on the grounds during the day.

The big festivities will start at ten o'clock and by two o'clock, everyone should have been fed, as there will be plenty of eats for everyone, no matter how hungry he may be. R. J. Elledge, superintendent, has arranged for a pound of meat for every visitor and the meat, plus the other good things which are to be cooked, will guarantee that everyone will have a wonderful dinner.

5c IS ENOUGH FOR A GOOD SMOKE

It Buys a Dandy Cigar—If You're a Good Picker

No doubt you've done your share of hunting for "a good five-cent smoke." And finally decided "there ain't no such thing." Wait—here's the latest tip ever handed you: Bayuk's Havana Ribbon. Try that cigar, sir, and you'll be playing five-cent limit till the cows come home.

Bayuk's Havana Ribbon is as different from ordinary five-centers as a home run is different from a pop fly. That's because we've landed squarely on the secret of what makes a cigar good: Ripe tobacco! Unlike the average nickel cigar, Bayuk's Havana Ribbon contains no bitter under-ripe nor flat-tasting over-ripe leaves. No "scraps" or cuttings discarded in the making of higher priced cigars. But only long-filler, fully-ripe leaves from the mid-section of choice tobacco plants. "Sounds reasonable," you say. Why, man, it's amazing! Sold everywhere. Also Practical Pocket Packages of five cigars.

WINTER WHEAT SHOWS NORMAL DECLINE IN MAY

There was the usual May decline in winter wheat condition in Indiana, the crop on June 1 being reported as 84 per cent of normal according to the crop report issued by the department of agricultural statistics of the Purdue University Agricultural experiment station in co-operation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Winter wheat condition declined sharply in the southwest and rose in the eastern part of the state, with little change in the other sections. The decline in the southwest was due to the fear of reduced yields by Hessian Fly damage, rather heavy infestation having been observed in some sections. The forecast of production for the year is 27,334,000 bushels as compared with last year's production of 9,450,000 bushels, and the five year average of 30,057,000 bushels.

Rye followed wheat closely, declining three points to 85 per cent of normal. The forecast for yield is 1,564,000 bushels compared with 946,000 bushels last year and a five year average of 2,347,000 bushels.

Oats and barley were reported four and six points, respectively below the ten year average in condition. Hay and pasture are three to seven points above average, except for alfalfa which is only one point above.

Apples were rated slightly above average, while prospects for peaches are very good and pears a little better than usual.

The supply of farm labor continues to decline, while the demand is increasing. The ratio of supply to demand is now 101 where last month it was 106 and a year ago 110.

On June 1, 78.5 per cent of the milk cows on reporter's farms were milked and these averaged 24.5 pounds per cow. The average production of milk per farm reporting milk cows was 119.3 pounds compared with 102.2 last year. The number of cows reported per herd was 6.21 compared with 5.62 last year.

SHELL MOTOR OIL WEEK
June 16-22, Inclusive
"Ask the Shell Man"

Who gets the extra mileage -- you or friction?

Friction does not wait to take the last ten or twenty thousand miles. If the lubricant in your engine does not have sufficient body—Friction breaks thru. Wear occurs. Mileage, in terms of motor life, is lost forever.

"Use a heavier oil," you say? Not necessarily. If motor oil body is too heavy—even slightly so—Friction sets up an "oil-drag." Result: Loss of power and pick-up... Decreased efficiency and responsiveness... Gasoline mileage greatly lessened—as much as 20 per cent in some cases.

In developing the correct grade of Shell Motor Oil for every car, Shell engineers took these and many other factors into account. That is why thousands of automobile owners are finding in Shell Motor Oil that fine balance of qualities which insures proper lubrication.

Regular users of Shell Motor Oil confidently depend on it to provide ideal body throughout the full range of operating temperatures... to retain its lubricating qualities under long and grueling service... to finish the 500th mile as fit and fresh as it started the first.

Shell Motor Oil has stamina... courage... a fighting heart. It won't break down. Forming a perfect fluid seal between piston ring and cylinder wall, Shell Motor Oil helps retain power and compression. —Adds improved efficiency to proper lubrication.

Shell Motor Oil is today's outstanding contribution to the science of automobile lubrication. Only Nature's richest lubricating crude forms the base of Shell. Shell-developed, low-temperature refining prepares this virgin stock for use... gives it the body and stamina which have never lost a battle to heat and friction. And before it reaches you, it must pass 259 relentless tests which check and certify the rich, unvarying quality of every quart.

That quality covers every essential—provides every one of the four requirements of complete and thorough lubrication: Ideal Body plus Low Carbon Content, Soft Carbon, and Low Pour Point.

STOP AT THE SIGN OF THE SHELL

—And let the Shell Lubrication Chart be your guide. You'll find courteous salesmen at the yellow and red service stations. Convenient everywhere.

BACK TO CAMP

They are getting ready now, these thirty-odd thousand young Americans in the late teens and early twenties. Soon they will be descending upon the Citizens' Military Training Camps again for another wonderful thirty days in the great outdoors. From Maine to California and from the Lakes to the Gulf these choice selections of our stalwart young manhood are coming to Uncle Sam's greatest experimental laboratory in citizenship, the Citizens' Military Training Camp.

What will they get out of it, these boys and young men who are so truly representative of the best that is, our future leaders? And what will the nation itself derive from the annual project sponsored by the government?

Let us look at the record. The graduates of the C. M. T. C. courses and—and will—gladly testify to the benefits they have gained by the wholesome contacts made. The Citizens' Military Training Camp movement need go no further than to point with pride to the hundreds of thousands of young men all over the country who have completed one or more courses at the Camp.

Individuals as well as nations have from the beginning of civilization striven to attain an ideal of implanting a sound mind in a sound body. The aim of the government camps has been just that. How well they have succeeded may be witnessed by the merest glance at any lad today who has attended even one basic C. M. T. C. course.

Sober judgment is unconsciously inculcated into the adolescent boy as the varied program in force at these government camps makes him render his own decisions, stand upon his own feet.

The healthy variety of outdoor sports encouraged at the camps build the youth physically at the same time
